QUORUM IN HOUSE
TO HEAR MESSAGE
OF PRES. WILSONResolution is Adopted For Joint Session With
Senate at 4 P. M.PRESIDENT TO RECOMMEND ACTION TO REDUCE COSTSMay Ask For Extension of Leaver Food Control
Bill.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The house today adopted a resolution for a joint session of congress at 4 o'clock this afternoon to hear President Wilson's recommendations as to means looking to the reduction of the high cost of living.

A point of no quorum had been made by Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas, when the chair refused to recognize him for the introduction of a measure, but a roll call developed that a quorum was in attendance.

The recommendations will be heard upon information secured by the president personally and by a committee appointed several days ago by Attorney General Palmer, following a meeting of cabinet members to discuss the crisis brought about by the continued ascent of prices of food and other necessities of life.

The address is expected to deal with all elements that have entered into creation of this condition in which the country today finds itself and which include labor problems and strikes resulting from them and production which would be interfered with by strikes. The present railroad wage situation is expected to be discussed as an incident, it is said.

It is expected no recommendations will be made for a licensing system for producers, manufacturers nor for a law limiting the margin of profit on commodities. However, the president is expected to ask for an extension of the Lever food control bill so that it can be made applicable as a peace time measure to shoes, clothing and other necessities as well as food.

The message said to be a lengthy one, was completed last night after it had been revised in some detail to meet the suggestion of cabinet members who were called in to confer with Mr. Wilson late yesterday.

Ober has re-enlisted in the United States marine corps for the eighth time—signifying over thirty-one years of active service—a record which entitles him to the distinction of being the oldest marine in the service. He has been on duty in every port in the world, and was for a time stationed in the Philippines and China. Sergeant Ober is now stationed in Washington in the office of Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

ARCH DUKE DOES NOT WANT CROWNDeclares He Is a Democrat and Will Allow Election to Determine Hungary's Future.

Vienna, Thursday, August 7.—There is no intention of making Arch Duke Joseph, king of Hungary, according to advices here from Budapest, his office being merely that of president. Although he is surrounded by old monarch influences, he has declared in an interview that he would attempt to work along the same lines as Count Michael Karolyi, saying:

"I am a true democrat. I tried to show this by surrendering most of my estates last fall. It is my intention to carry on the government until the elections are held and then parliament will decide upon matters."

After various consultations with allied representatives, including General Gordon of the British army and Colonel W. B. Causey, United States of America, attached to the relief administration in Budapest, as well as Lieutenant Colonel Romaneli, of the Italian mission, yesterday, Arch Duke Joseph and his generals called upon the allies in a group.

Reports reaching here say that this visit had to be delayed because the arch duke's trousers had disappeared, having been stolen. His attaches had to do some quick skirmishing to borrow another pair, it is said, in as much as the communists had taken most of the arch duke's clothing a month ago when he visited the allies he presented his plan for a new government which was tactfully accepted.

Representatives of the new government visited Premier Jules Pétain and other members of the Hungarian cabinet at 7 o'clock in the evening and announced to them that they must resign, it being declared that they had been unable to keep order and had no representatives of the nation. The ministers handed in their resignation within a short time making no special protest after relinquishing office.

WANTS WHEAT PRICE
REMOVED BY GOVT.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Repeal of the government price guarantee for wheat, to enable to secure higher prices, was urged at a special meeting today of the senate agricultural committee. Action by the committee was deferred.

Senator Norris, Democrat, proposed repeal of the price guarantee and T. C. Atkinson, Washington representative of the National Grange endorsed it.

"That is exactly what the farmers are praying for," said he.

Senator Grinnan and other committee members said the wheat price guarantee law has not been carried out. The $2.25 guarantee provided was intended by congress to be the minimum price with a higher price possible under the law of supply and demand. Instead they asserted, the United States grain corporation had made the minimum guarantee the maximum price for the farmer.

Mr. Atkinson told the committee that the farmer would receive an average of only $1.50 per bushel for wheat this year. He and Senator Grinnan declared that had the government not fixed the prices farmers would receive much more than the guarantee because of the prospective wheat shortage and world demand.

COLUMBUS SHOPMEN

Washington, Aug. 8.—A joint resolution "declaring that a state of anarchy exists in the United States, authorizing the president to free interstate mails and traffic from further unlawful interference and to adequately protect citizens in their property rights," was introduced today by Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Forty additional passenger trains were cancelled today by Chicago railroads as a result of the strike of Federated Railway Shopmen.

New York, Aug. 8.—An embargo on all freight on the New York, New Haven & Hartford and the Central New England railroads was announced this morning because of the strike of shop men.

Washington, Aug. 8.—With the declaration by President Wilson that until the men return to work and again recognize the authority of their own organization the whole matter of wage increase must be at a standstill, the next step in the railroad strike situation thus put squarely up to the employees.

The few reports that had been received early today indicated a willingness on the part of some of the striking shopmen to comply with the request and it was believed nearly all of the 80,000 men reported idle yesterday would follow suit.

President Wilson's statement was contained in a communication to Director General Hines, in which the director general was authorized to take up the wage demands of the brotherhood members and decide them on their merits if it followed a letter received by the president from Chairman Cummins, of the senate interstate commerce committee, the president was told to hold ample authority to deal with the situation growing out of the demands of the railroad men without additional legislation by congress.

Mr. Wilson in his letter to Mr. Hines said:

"It is clearly our duty to proceed with the matter in the hope of disposing of it."

At the same time he expressed the hope that the director general would make it clear to the men concerned that the railroad administration cannot deal with any problems affecting them except through the duly chosen officers and committees of their organizations.

The chief obstacle to a decision in the present case, he wrote, was created by the men themselves in that they had gone out on strike and repudiated the authority of their officers.

"They should promptly return to work," he wrote. "And I hope you will urge upon their representatives the immediate necessity for their doing so."

Mr. Hines immediately notified the unions of the president's decision, including a copy of Mr. Wilson's letter and announcing that he was ready to take up the questions involved "as soon as the employees return to work."

There still was no indication today

By 10:35 this morning more than 300 employees had left the shops there. It was stated by N. & W. officials that probably 600 would be affected by the strike order.

Left to right, Miss Rose Stokes of New York and Miss Louise Larned, of West Point, N. Y., putting in details on specifications and charts for submarines.

These girls drew submarine plans for the U. S. navy instead of knitting socks during the war. They enlisted in the navy as yeomen and were in the camouflage corps in New York studying to go abroad when the armistice was signed. Both girls are artists and will be retained by the navy after yeomanettes are relieved. Miss Rose Stokes of New York city is commander of the Betsy Rose chapter of the American Legion, and Miss Louise Larned enlisted from West Point, New York.

Nearly 10,000 pounds of bacon in slabs were sold yesterday and as soon as the municipal market opened at the People's market house this morning the few hundred pounds left on hand was quickly disposed of.

There is quite a little corned beef and roast beef remaining to be sold and Mayor Atherton, who is in charge of the sale, stated today that the market will be opened tomorrow morning for business.

Mayor Atherton stated that he is making an effort to have the government send him a car of canned goods but that it has not yet been released and if his request is granted he will place it on sale at once. Vegetable prices in other cities where the government has shipped supplies are quoted as follows:

Beans, baked, No 1 cans	.07

Offers of help by any of the business men of the city to serve on the clerical force will be received at the Mayor's office or at the market. The market will be open tonight.

It was announced this afternoon that arrangements had been made for space on the market for the selling of army meat on Saturday's market. The sale will continue tonight until 9 o'clock and until the same hour Saturday night.

An effort is now being made to secure a car of canned vegetables the proposition of having a car of sugar sent to this city from the army depot at Columbus has been taken up providing the government will release it.

Clemenceau May Visit America This Fall.

Paris, Aug. 8.—The presence of Prime Minister Clemenceau at the first general assembly of the League of Nations at Washington is strongly urged in American quarters, according to Marcel Hulin of the Echo de Paris who said his informant is a French statesman.

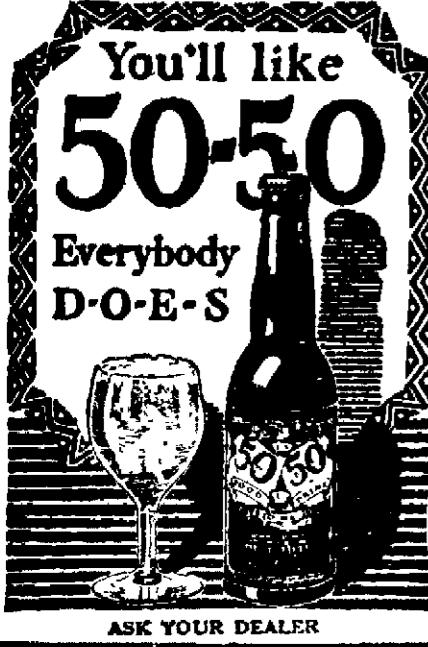

Mr. Hulin added that while of course the premier cannot bind himself to go to America at the time when his presence in France is particularly necessary, it may be possible to arrange things and M. Clemenceau will be unlikely to remain immovable to pressing invitation.

As to the date of the assembly, it is said, in exchange of views between the two governments now is going on.

Cocoanut Oil Makes
A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this doesn't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonsfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

CHARGE WITH ANARCHY.

New York, Aug. 8.—Charged with criminal anarchy under an old section of the penal code, four men were arrested here today by detectives of the FBI. The men, who are members of the FBI, were being held incommunicado in a New York City jail.

Officials of the New York Central and the Pennsylvania and the New Haven announced that 12 passenger trains would be dropped, all dining and parlor car service discontinued, and the suspension of the existing timetable.

The Chesapeake & Ohio announced that 30 passenger trains had been discontinued, which notice was preceded by one of a limited freight embargo throughout the system.

The Chicago & Northwestern ordered 17 trains out from its schedule, 10 of them suburban and seven running to Iowa and Wisconsin points.

Officials of the New York Central, the Pennsylvania and the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroads stated that passenger service on their lines would not be disturbed for 24 hours, but after that time the conditions of the economy would determine train schedules.

The proximity of Sunday, a day when all traffic is light, might offer relief from the complications to be expected from线条 needing minor repairs on Sunday. All working forces are now to be mobilized toward putting the engines in shape for reopening.

AMUSEMENTS

ALHAMBRA.

"A Petal on the Current." That Fannie Hurst wrote the story of "A Petal on the Current" is sufficient guarantee that this new Universal starring vehicle for Mary MacLaren, which will be presented at the Alhambra theatre, Sunday, is a human tale of a very human person.

The "Genius of the Short Story," as Kathleen Norris has called Fannie Hurst, reached the pinnacle of her art in "A Petal on the Current," so Cosmopolitan magazine readers have declared. A number of other companies are said to have bid for the story before the Universal obtained it for Miss MacLaren.

So admirably fitted to Miss MacLaren is the role of Stella Selump, who is in "Children's Shoes" at the Criterion, that critics, who have read the fiction story and have seen the photoplay in pre-release showing, say that in their opinion Carl Laemmle, Universal's president, bought the tale in the belief that Miss Hurst drew on Mary MacLaren's screen personality for her principal character. The Stella Schump of "A Petal on the Current," as it appeared in the Cosmopolitan Magazine was flaxen-haired and blue-eyed, milk-white complexioned and of the fiber that distinguishes the plucky American girl from all others. Reality, rather than realism, shines forth from this human, inspiring record of a girl's success which came in spite of the damnation of circumstances, of her downward course on the river of disillusionment, and her Read, Jr., is Master Pat Moore. This struggles to gain the shore of "Another Chance."

"The Gipsy Trail."

Bryant Washburn, who is to appear in his first Paramount comedy, "The Gipsy Trail," at the Alhambra Monday and Tuesday, recently made his first appearance with the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation in the role of Captain Strong, the leading figure in "Cecil B. De Mille's" Artcraft special, "Till I Come Back to You," and was accorded unstinted praise by everyone who reviewed the production for the press. Mr. Washburn has that typically American quality which at once renders him a favorite, particularly at a time when true Americanism is more than ever something to be proud of.

In "The Gipsy Trail," which is romantic to a degree, he appears in the role of a bashful lover—and those who know his style of work will appreciate the earnestness with which he vests this character. In the end he wins because of his sterling worth, against the lure of the nomadic and romantic chap who elects to follow "the gipsy trail," and who for a time casts the spell of his roving temperament upon the would-be romantic heroine. The latter part is played by Wanda Hawley, while Casson Ferguson is the rover.

AUDITORIUM

A Wonderful Child Actor. Prominent in support of Louise Glaum in that gorgeous Hodgkinson picture, "Sahara," presented by J. Parker Read, Jr., is Master Pat Moore. This very youthful actor plays, with the innocence of childhood, a part that will win with pity the heart of every mother and other who sees this powerful C. Gardner Sullivan drama, supervised by Allan Dwan, now playing at the Auditorium.

Little Pat's mother in "Sahara" is Mignon. She has deserted her husband and child for the admiration and luxury her shallow soul craved. Years later she found the child in the filthy Street of Beggars in Cairo begging for "alms for me and Alice." The money was used by his father for the deadly drug, hashish. In the demented old beggar the wife recognizes what she and the drug had left of her husband.

The boy's most poignant scene comes when he turns his big, confounding brown eyes on the woman who has taken them from the gutter, and asks, "Do you know the bad woman we dot to kill?" She was that woman, and she unflinchingly faced the knowledge that the recovery of her husband's memory meant her death, but the stab of those baby words were greater than the pain of death. "Sahara" is the big Hodgkinson picture that is certain to be hailed the sensation of the year. This feature is shown today and tomorrow.

Johanna Enlists.

For genuinely delicious humor and timely interest, announcement is made that Mary Pickford's newest photoplay "Johanna Enlists," a screen adaptation of Rupert Hughes' successful story "The Mobilization of Johanna," which will be shown at the Auditorium theatre next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, is perhaps the most pleasing offering of the season and in many respects one of the most novel and delightful vehicles ever provided for this famous cinema star.

One feature of unusual interest which makes this photoplay most notable is that the military scenes with which it abounds presents the members of the 143rd Regiment, Field Artillery, of which Miss Pickford is the honorary colonel. The troops were encamped at Universal Ranch, in California, where the scenes were "shot," and they will, of course, be absolutely realistic, even to a court-martial which is carried out with every attention to detail.

The Lion's Den.

"The Lion's Den," the latest Metro play in which Bert Lytell is starred, will be the feature at the Auditorium theatre on Sunday next.

"The Lion's Den," tells of a young clergyman who desires to save the boys of his flock from the evils of the street by offering them, instead, a well-equipped club. How his project seems doomed to failure through the lack of funds, and his ultimate decision to enter the "lion's den of commerce," and earn the money himself are incidents which make a play of unusual strength and human appeal. It is tense with gripping moments though generously lightened by flashes of humor distinc-

PROFITEERING.

Taking ten weeks of continuous sessions to pass bills that failed because of the Republican filibuster last spring, the house of representatives was preparing to take a vacation of several weeks when reminded of its duty to the nation by President Wilson.

The President in special communication to the House Republican leaders asked them to remain in session and enter seriously upon the solution of the high cost of living, promising the assistance of the executive departments under his control.

We distinctly recall that our Republican friends lambasted the President on every occasion for failure to stay at home and solve America's internal problems instead of helping to conclude peace and formulating an association of nations to prevent future wars.

The Republican leaders and the Republican members of that congress were not in Europe. They certainly knew of the rapidly mounting cost of living. What did they do about it? Absolutely nothing. It remained for the President to come back from his great task abroad and to remind the leaders of their duty to the nation.

Fact is that duty has been forgotten in the eagerness of the leaders of Washington to discredit and embarrass the President. They have spent their time trying to put the President in a hole and to "Get something on" the administration.

The President has turned the machinery of the government against the interests that threaten the national safety and the national welfare by profiteering in almost every line of foodstuffs and other necessities.

And this reactionary, partisan outfit in control in house and senate had better get down to business at once or there will be a day of accounting not far hence.

STEAM ROLLER AT WORK.

Congressman Henry L. Emerson, Republican of Cleveland, is in bad with the leadership of the Republican party in the house, because he has condemned the failure of the Republicans to make an effort to solve the high cost of living. Emerson refused to submit a speech he intended to deliver and he was promptly squelched. The Ohioan roared his Republican colleagues for failure to delve into the alleged combinations in control of food stuffs. He blamed the Republicans for repealing the tax on soda water with great acclaim while they failed to repeal taxes on necessities of life. Now Emerson is on the blacklist with the gag rule reactionary leaders of his party in the house. And it is with every member of congress of every senator, who proposes to do anything for himself—the old Cannon-Aldrich steam roller has been put in working order again.

The county prosecutor, who, through laziness, lack of ability, indifference or otherwise refuses to co-operate with the attorney general in the food cost probe will quickly find himself out of tune with the people in his county. And the governor has made it plain that he will invoke the state law in such localities and authorize the attorney general to conduct investigations and summon special grand juries. Licking county prosecutor Charles L. Flory is always on the job ready for duty.

IT'S NO SURPRISE.

The Republican State Advisory committee—the one that controlled the general assembly and made it so "popular" in Ohio—shows its superb patriotism by issuing a statement declaring that the attack on the cost of living, inaugurated by Governor James M. Cox is purely political and is an attempt to grab the Ohio delegation to the next National convention.

Having followed the activities of the said Advisory committee for some time, the announcement causes no surprise but it will have little effect on the activities of the state and county authorities who are going after the profiteers with determination to bring down food prices.

Governor Cox launched his drive against the collusion and conspiracy existing in Ohio. With him is associated the Attorney General, a Republican, who is bending every effort and using all of the state's legal machinery and the prosecuting attorneys of every county in Ohio, the majority of whom are Republicans.

The charge that these Ohio officials are playing politics is a reflection on those who bring the charge. The State Advisory committee of the Republican party is playing with fire when it allows its partisan zeal and animosity to the Governor to cause it to belittle the attempt of Ohio officially to bring relief to the oppressed public at this critical time. There will be intense condemnation of the politicians' unpatriotic attitude throughout the rank and file of the Republican party in the state.

ENTHUSIASM.

Enthusiasm is the greatest business asset in the world. It beats money, and power, and influence. Single handed, the enthusiast convinces and dominates where wealth accumulated by a small army of workers would scarcely raise a tremor of interest. Enthusiasm tramples over prejudice and opposition, spurns inaction, storms the citadel of its object and like an avalanche, overwhelms and engulfs all obstacles.

Enthusiasm is nothing more or less than faith in action. Faith on initiative, rightly combined, remove mountainous barriers and achieve the unheard of and miraculous. Set the germ of enthusiasm afloat in your plant; carry it in your attitude and manner; it spreads like contagion and influences every fibre of your industry before you realize it; it begets and inspires effects you did not dream of; it means increase in production and decrease in costs; it means joy and pleasure and satisfaction to your workers; it means life, real and virile; it means spontaneous bed-rock results—the vital things that pay dividends.—The Melting Pot.

Insurance rates in Ohio are to drop ten per cent on September 1st, according to the announcement of the Insurance Commissioner, at the instance of Governor Cox. During the war the insurance companies were allowed a ten per cent advance, but official approval was never given so that it could be reduced whenever the state deemed the war conditions over. Just at this time the lowering of the price of anything is good news and the reduction will be welcomed as the fore-runner of other prices that are to fall as a result of the Governor's fight against the high cost of living.

The decision of the national House to rescind its former intention of recessing from session until the second week in September, in order to give heed to the demand for railroad and cost-of-living legislation, is evidently wise. As the President points out in letters to Chairman Cummins and Esch, there is a vital relationship between transportation and the skyrocketing cost of necessities. It is a time when men in responsible public stations are expected to give the best service they are capable of for the solution of pressing problems of a people's welfare. A five weeks' recess in the face of such a situation as now confronts the American nation could scarcely be justified upon any basis. The place for congressmen now is at Washington—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A National Obligation. The decision of a majority of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs that the State and War Departments should make every effort to secure the return of the bodies of the American soldier dead, buried in France, is in line, probably, with the desire of the great majority of relatives and friends who have joined in the supreme sacrifice for the country. Such an effort is regarded as national obligation. The east the nation can do is to give back the bodies to those from whom it has asked so much, and while the anxiety of the French government as to the physical and psychological consequences of general disinterment of the dead at this time is to be respected, the duty which the government of the United States owes to its loyal sacrificing citizens is a paramount consideration.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

together in amity as they had been living and as they would have continued with out a break but for the turbulence of the one per cent.

If the country is to get anything out of such occurrences as we refer to it is the idea that the overwhelming law abiding majority whether white or black should take charge and control the infestations turbulent minority to restrain their evil passions. For they involve others who do not wish to be involved. The victims of such violence are often those who have no sympathy with it as those who willingly participate in it and they can protect themselves only by exerting their natural and for evil purposes but for the restraint of evil.

Race troubles in the south have received more than their due share of attention from northern papers and there has been in some quarters a disposition to blame the whole south for them. A section covering an area nearly as great as all Europe outside of Russia and with people living in it at extremes nearly two thousand miles apart has been lectured as if it were a small community and its people blamed for occurrences fifteen hundred miles from them. This unreasoning spleen has been shown more by the Chicago Tribune than by any other paper, but the people of Illinois, the people of Chicago, are not responsible for its malvolence and so instead of returning the lectures we have received we regret the misfortunes that have befallen the people of another American city.

GOING COI.LAPSE.

(Ohio State Journal)

These terrible thunder and lightning storms that now pass by so frequently seem almost to support the opinion of the London preacher that the world is soon coming to an end. In fact, there were several moments when we thought that the rage of the elements was so terrific that their restoration to normality was hardly possible. There were some of the crashes that seemed to break up the skies and shake the earth out of shape; when, if the tension should keep up any longer, the whole terrestrial situation would go to smash. Of course, the preacher did not regard these symbols of physical wrath as the signs of the end. His grounds were of a moral sense and yet nine-tenths of the people were more scared by the roar of thunder and the flashes of lightning than they were by the penalties of sin which hang over their careers. And yet when a man's faith is not strong enough to face a thunder and lightning storm it is getting ready for the final collapse.

There were eight other contenders. The race was said to be one of the best every seen on the Xenia track.

The Kity Did, owned and driven by Dick Smith, captured the first and third heats of the 2 1/2 trot and then was dislodged in the fourth owing to a sudden ailment of the mare. The first heat was trotted in 2:13 1/4 and the third heat in 2:15 1/4 and the fifth heat in 2:19 1/4. Maximo, owned and driven by Ben Jones of this city finished third in the 220 trot, winning the third heat in 2:17 1/4.

Cleveland Produce, Cleveland, O., August 8—Produce market unchanged.

Chicago Grain Review.

Chicago, Aug. 8—Sharp curtailment in the volume of trading was the most evident feature today on change here. Opening prices, which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1 3/8 cents lower, with Sept. 1.86 to 1.84 1/4 and Dec. 1.49 to 1.50 were followed by continued weakness in the new crop delivery, and by the virtual wiping out of transient gain in Sept.

Oats reflected the conditions in the corn market. After opening 5 1/2 off to 1 1/4 cent advance, including Sept. 72 @ 72 1/2 the market hardened a little, but then underwent a moderate decline. dealings in provisions were almost at standstill. Quotations were nominally lower owing to absence of support.

The wool market has experienced a week of midsummer dullness, sales being in spots. Prices, however, have been maintained on a steady basis. Very little now is being purchased in the west.

The foreign markets are all reported steady. The English government has allotted 160,000 bales of colonial wool to American purchases 1/2 of the sales commencing August 1.

The goods market is strong with comparatively little excitement.

APPLY GOLDEN RULE TO SOLVE H. G. L. IS PLEA

Akron, Aug. 8.—Representative Ruth B. Beetham of Harrison county, majority leader of the house, sees in the strict application of the Golden Rule the only solution of the high cost of living. This idea was advanced by the Republican leader in a speech at the legislative reunion dinner at Portage hotel here last night.

Though the high cost of living and the state food price investigation was referred to several times in speeches at the dinner, legislators found little time for discussion of such weighty subjects as their time is taken in enjoying the entertainment offered by the local chamber of commerce.

Congressman Martin L. Davey of Kent, substituting on the speaking program for Governor Cox, who could not be present, decried partisanship. "It is with shame that I admit that practically all congress has done since it convened in May has been to pass the appropriation bills left over from the previous session and play politics," he said.

Other speakers were Lieutenant Governor Brown, Speaker Kimball and house minority leader Hopple. Representative John Cowan of Putnam county, and Senator Ake of Canton read original poems.

Today's entertainment consists of automobile trips to East Reservoir, Portage Lake, and other points of interest near the city.

EMBRYO STARS GET CHANCE THRU' STRIKE

New York, Aug. 8.—Understudies, who hardly hoped to appear in first night performances or even to be thrust into the spotlight of a new play during its summer debut suddenly became the object of much attention from Broadway theatre managers today.

In several of the 12 theatres where the stages were darkened last night by the strike called by the Actors' Equity association, understudies will appear with hastily obtained casts for tonight's performances, if the plans of the managers mature.

The strike is confined so far to performers of the legitimate stage in this city alone.

In the 12 houses where the strike was called more than 300 performers were prevented from appearing. This affected such well known players as Frank Bacon, Fay Bainter, Holbrook Blinn, Olive Wyndham, Harry Kelly, Frank Fay, Frederick Santley, Newbold Robinson, Tessa Kosta and Ralph Morgan.

HIS NERVE FORCE SLOW TO RETURN AFTER THE "FLU"

But Nerv-Worth Soon "Made It Gain Every Day," Says James W. Kinnell.

This well-known resident of Greensburg, Pa., makes a statement here which a host of sufferers from flu after-effects should promptly profit by. This is what he said a few days ago to Greensburg's Nerv-Worth druggist.

H. J. Weightman had a very severe attack of the "flu." It left me in very debilitated condition and I did not seem to be making any progress in regaining my nerve force and strength, until I took Nerv-Worth. Its use placed me on the way to recovery and I am gaining every day. I want to recommend it to others in the same condition.

JAMES W. KENNELL,

Nerv-Worth whets the appetite, adds flesh, aids digestion, steadies and strengthens the nerves, rouses the liver, restores restful sleep, banishes sick and nervous headache, and other aches and pains, builds up run-down systems. LADY SUFFERED FOR TWO YEARS

Stomach trouble never let up on her for one single day till she found Dreco, the new herbal remedy.

"For two long years I have been a patient sufferer from stomach trouble, constipation and feverish things," declares Mrs. Leavelle Thompson, the well known and highly respected lady, who resides at 346 N. 10th St., Newark, O., in a signed statement for publication.

"I have spent many a dollar for medicine and doctor's bills, seeking relief from gastritis, dyspepsia, indigestion and constipation. My stomach often became so swollen from the gas that it felt like a rope tied round my body. No matter how careful I was with my food, it was the same; always that sourness, belching, choked up feeling. My nerves were all unstrung, and I never knew a good night's rest. Heavy dragging pains would back over my kidneys, becoming almost unbearable. My liver was sluggish, tongue coated, glands enlarged before my eyes; my limbs ached and my general health was about broken down."

"I am 52 years old, and had given up hope of ever being strong and well again, but I am here today, praising

Dreco for the grand, wonderful results it has given me. I am not like the same sick, puny woman I was before, but feel good all over. Bowels act regularly; my food digests well, with no more gas or sour belching. The pains are gone from my back and limbs, and my liver is active again. Say anything you want to in the papers about Dreco, for you will not be able to fully express my gratitude to this great remedy.

ponent, is addressing the members of the

Lazy Life During Hot Months Causes Lazy Liver

At no other time is the girl so constant a companion of her mother as when she is emerging into womanhood. There are so many questions to ask; so much she needs to know.

And school is over. Hers is now a lazy, inactive, carefree life. No wonder she is not always as lively and as well as she should be at her age. Let the mother inquire if the bowels are functioning properly, for there lies the basis of good and poor health.

It will usually be found that a laxative is needed, and none will give safer and quicker relief than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsi which is just a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. Taken tonight, it acts freely and pleasantly in the morning. The head is again clear, the body light. There is renewed interest in life.

A dose of Syrup Pepsi now and then is almost a necessity for everyone in hot weather. A bottle can be bought at any drug store for 50¢ and $1., the latter being the family size, or a fractional bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

TRUCK CRUSHES OUT LASSIE'S HAPPY LIFE

Lassie is dead! A dozen youngsters in Hudson avenue, near Oak street, are deeply grieved. Lassie was only a dog. But she was of that type which becomes a favorite in the neighborhood. She was fond of her friends, and she had hundreds of them. She showed by her action that she appreciated the time they took to stop and dress her.

She was a beautiful Scotch collie, and while W. C. Kuster was her owner she was a neighborhood dog and the youngsters in that vicinity enjoyed the feeling of proprietorship in the animal.

She came to her end Friday morning when a truck loaded with cement crushed out her happy life.

Lassie was a remarkable dog in many respects. Like dogs of her breed she was a friendly animal and none of the parents or children in the neighborhood had any apprehension that she would harm the kiddies.

Probably no other dog in the state had her knowledge of automobiles. She could pick out a Ford as far as she could see, or hear one.

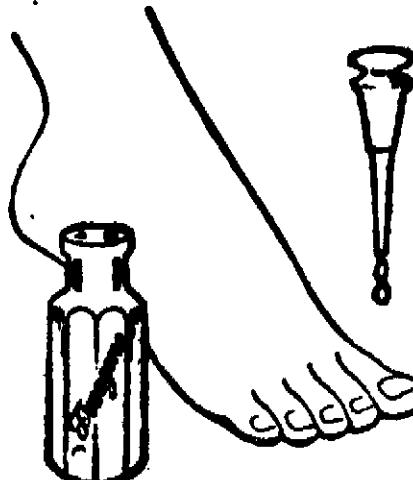

She was fond of barking at Fords and those who have watched her day after day declare that she seldom made a mistake. Out of hundreds of machines she picked out and down the street she rarely made a mistake and her sole mission in life seemed to be to escort Ford cars along Hudson avenue, between St. Clair and Oak street.

More recently she took greater chances. She seemed to lose the fear of Fords which followed an accident when she was still in her puppyhood. The story is that it was a Ford which ran her down more than a year ago and she has had an aversion to the fivers ever since.

Licking county's war organization. Everyone conducted so far has been an overwhelming success and the men are determined to put the last drive over with a bang. They will conduct a three-day drive and report on Thursday evening to receive their formal discharge from service. Engraved certificates testifying to the good work accomplished during the war will be presented to these salesmen at the conclusion of their work. The drive is on August 12, 13, 14, to put Old Licking over the top once more and win for this county a national honor in the form of the Victory shaft.

The sale of W. S. S. at the Newark postoffice yesterday was unusually large. Definite figures will not be given until the close of the mail carriers' contest. If you want to see J. G. Cooper win first place among 100,000 letter-carriers buy W. S. S. or treasury certificates tomorrow as the carriers' contest ends August 9.

For the first time the new United States Treasury Certificates in denomination of $100 were put on sale at the Newark postoffice this morning. The $100 certificates have not as yet reached Newark. Treasury Savings Certificates are notes of the United States government, a first direct obligation on its treasury and on the entire resources and taxing power of the United States government. Rating of this concern, AAA. Now that they are available in the $100 denomination, they may be said to have several important advantages over the various Liberty bond issues.

The advantages of W. S. S. and Treasury Certificates were so marked that the government restricted their sale so that not more than $1000 maturity value of any one person could be sold to one person. The new Treasury Certificates are practically the same as War Savings Stamps; better in fact, because they are more conveniently handled and do not require pasting upon cards. They are in appearance like governmental bonds. They buy the same rate of interest as W. S. S. may be cashed when the money is needed, and they grow more valuable monthly. They are guaranteed never to go below par, but on the other hand, are constantly growing more valuable. One certificate this month costs $83.50; ten (the limit), $83. The purchase of these Treasury Certificates counts in the mail-carriers' contest and also in the shaft contest.

Postmaster E. D. Brown of Pataskala, reports the sale of 200 W. S. S. to Mrs. Lillie Johnston, P. D. No. 3, Pataskala.

T. C. Jury of Jaegerstown, came to town yesterday for the purpose of buying 200 W. S. S. in James G. Cooper's honor.

Mrs. Hazel Altschul Bainbridge, who so successfully handled the Sixth ward organization during the women's W. S. S. drive in June, writes from Chicago, her present home, that she had just read in a Chicago newspaper of the "wonderful Mr. Cooper of Licking county." Mrs. Bainbridge referred to Mail-carrier Cooper who is leading 160,000 letter-carriers in W. S. S. sales. Mrs. Bainbridge says she will await the result of next week's W. S. S. drive with interest.

Postmaster Taylor of Hebron, has just sold 200 W. S. S. to Thomas Kuhns, M. T. Glead L. B.

WOMAN SAVED MUCH SUFFERING

By taking Friend's Advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

West Plains, Mo.—"I was all run down in health, had indigestion and terrible cramps every month so I was unable to do anything. I had tried every doctor in West Plains, also every remedy I could think of, without relief. One day when I was suffering greatly a friend was at my house and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I did, and through it, I found relief from my suffering and I really believe it saved my life. It does not seem as though I can say enough in praise of this wonderful medicine for the health it has brought me."—Miss CORA LEE HALL, West Plains, Mo.

Perhaps it may seem an extravagant statement to say that this great remedy saved a life; but women like Mrs. Hall, to whom it has brought health, appreciate the danger and suffering they have escaped too well to doubt it! All who suffer should try it. Why risk life and health without it?

For special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

643 DERRICKS IN TEXAS OIL TOWN

H. C. Kutz's Minstrel Show Does Thriving Business For Two Weeks—Writes Of Oil Boom.

The new petroleum metropolis of America, Burkhardt, Texas, has 643 derricks within the town limits, according to a letter to the Advocate from H. C. Kutz, former Newark man who is with the Alabama Minstrels, a tent show touring the Southwest. Kutz says murders and robberies are so common as to cause only passing comment among the natives. Burkhardt has grown from a town of 500 to a city of board shacks with a population of 40,000, in two years. Kutz's letter follows:

Roff, Okla., July 31, '19.—"We have been down in this Texas oil country for the past two weeks and I have been kept so busy counting our receipts that I did not get time to send you route. People are numerous in these oil towns. They do not know what corporals or mechanics are—every think goes from dimes up. Dudes' and rig builders get $15 to $20 per day and double for overtime.

"We have a seating capacity for 1,500 in our tent and we have had the S. R. O. sign out every night for two weeks at $1 general admission and 25 cents extra for reserved seats and 25 cents for concerts.

"Burkhardt two years ago had a population of 900. Now there are 40,000 people within a radius of seven miles and the same postoffice force is trying to handle the mail there. I stood in line at the general delivery window for two hours for my show mail, and then did not get my papers or packages. There are 643 derricks within the town limits by actual count by government men. Almost every private house in the town has a flowing oil well at its back door. The sanitary conditions are fearful—no sewage system, no city waterworks. Typhoid fever cases by the hundreds.

"There are people here from every state and almost from every country you might say. Murders and daylight robberies every day, in fact, so many of them that they are just common remarks on the street.

"The state has its foremost detectives here. The chief of the state detective department, who is an old friend of the writer, and who was with Cole Bros. circus with me for eight or nine years, is here, and he tells me that the worst of the country is here in this district. And you would think so if all that you hear happens.

"I am still holding down the job as confidential man with the Jones Bros., who own the oldest circus on the road. The Cole Bros. This circus is not on the road this season, for the same reason that kept the Ringling Bros. from taking out the Barnum & Bailey show this season—exorbitant railroad rates.

"Crop conditions in this country are fine. Wheat crop was a bumper crop, and it looks like a big cotton crop.

"If any Newark folks decide to come down here and inspect this country, take an old friend's advice: bring some Newark drinking water and your own ice-hats filled with some McDaniels real French drip coffee, as I was just in a restaurant and paid 85 cents to look at the steam coming from the coffee urn. With regards and best wishes."

CAPT. MARRIOT HAS CHARGE OF OFFICES

Dr. L. L. Marriot of St. Louis, now a captain in the medical corps of the U. S. Army, is located at general headquarters in France where he has been detailed to look after French officers. In a letter received this week he acknowledges receipt of the charter for the "Irving 'Em Back" club organized in his honor. His letter says:

"Received the application for charter for the Irving 'Em Back' club. I was surely very much pleased to think the people at home had not forgotten me and were making sacrifices in behalf of all of us who are away from home and loved ones. Makes you kind of get a funny feeling come all the way up your neck and kind of choke you and make you try to swallow some imaginary object in your throat. You who are at home miss us a heap, no doubt, but the feeling is different when you are on this end of the line—a stranger in a strange land. I have received good treatment by the people wherever I have been with them. Have no complaint to make. Of course some of their habits are queer to us and no more so than some of ours are to them. Have made some warm friends here and ones who I will like to have, especially among the French officers."

"I am now at general headquarters in attending surgeon's office, and the French barracks are all near us. I have charge of all the officers and American and English girls in this area. The arrangements were made by which we look after all the French officers of this camp. These are permanent barracks and filled with the regiments of the army. There is a shortage of French medical officers. I have met some of the officers and have been entertained in their homes. They are all very anxious to have an American officer or two attend them when they are sick or injured. The officers are the same way. Like to be taken to our hospital if anything is wrong except when it is an injury. At the front of the world walk by one of these officers is seen to one of ours. So, so good for our officers and especially for our men."

"Can't say just now. I will let you know. Am getting a good discount and want to get in more clothes, no more. But I am saving a great deal about the amount now. My clothes have been at any time about $100 for two months yet. We are so poor I am going to be like the old soldier from the south. He used to go to Akron, drive and return to Newark to buy. When taken to the hospital, he was asked where he was from. He said, 'Boss. Use from Sept. 1 to 1st, but if I ever get back there, I will come from South Carolina no more.'

"I am receiving the good news every day. Well, I have old Lucking and the Victory shaft and I think she is

IN announcing this August Furniture Sale we cannot impress upon you too strongly the necessity of immediate action as we doubt very much if we will ever be able to present values such as these for many years to come.

We feel that it is only just and fair to all customers that we give them an exact understanding of conditions as they actually exist in the furniture business today.

Furniture, like everything else, has been advancing in price, due to the increased cost of materials and labor.

Strikes have been prevalent in many of the furniture manufacturing centers, thus considerably reducing the output of furniture from these centers, with the natural result of increasing prices.

This may be the last furniture sale we will ever present for many years, and therefore it behooves you to take advantage of the opportunity now before you.

It is only because we anticipated present conditions and stocked up extensively on furniture of every description at former prices that we are able to continue our policy of holding these semi-annual sales.

Not every article in our store is included, but every department is represented with numerous special values.
